

Pediatrician

Job description:

Render diagnostic treatment, consultative, referral, emergency and other services to persons served by the clinic within scope of expertise.

Refer patients to appropriate specialists as needed.

Care for the health of infants, children, teenagers, and young adults.

Diagnose, treat and help prevent children's diseases and injuries.

Review requests for contract medical care, including requests for care to patients not seen by health clinic providers.

Ensure that qualified personnel render medical decisions and medical care.

Maintain accurate and comprehensible medical records.

Implement a system of Medical Quality Assurance pursuant to written procedure.

Provide consultations to other departments in the delivery of health care.

Maintain licensure standard by attending education seminars.

Represent LCTHC at local agencies and health related events.

Requirements:

Requires a Medical Doctorate (MD) degree or foreign equivalent, plus 1 year of experience in the job offered, Physician, Medical Doctor, or in a related occupation.

Must be a Board Certified Pediatrician and possess a California Medical License.

Must have current DEA registration.

Employment and background checks may be required.

Salary: $180,000/per year

Location: Clearlake, CA